

Online Teaching Learning Initiatives by J.S. University, Shikohabad during Lockdown due to Covid-19

J.S. University, Shikohabad has taken initiatives during this global pandemic and lockdown due to Covid-19. Our university has started online activities to enable teaching learning process during this lockdown period. Related information/links have been provided on the university website. Students and faculty members are advised to follow these online platforms given below.

1. Digital Library – University has provided various links on its website for the students/faculty members to access number of useful resources such as national digital library, UGC E-Resources, E-Pathshala, E-Books, E-Journals and many more.

2. Online Conferencing – In this category students are divided into different groups and faculty members are taking online classes by using various tools such as Sype, WhatsApp, Google Hangouts and Zoom Meetings.

3. SWAYAM/NPTEL Portal – An information and guidelines have been provided to the students about using SWAYAM Portal (MHRD Initiatives) and online content available on the NPTEL.

4. Google Classrooms – Course materials have been sent to students using emails, WhatsApp and students connected to Google hangouts. Online assignments/ Tutorials have also been sent to the students.

5. Social Media Platforms – Officers/Faculty members of the university are also using online social media platforms such as WhatsApp, Facebook etc. to connect with the students and sharing valuable information and requisite contents.

Dean Academics

J S University Shikohabad

Useful Links

1. National Digital Library of Indian
2. Swayam \(Free Online Education\)
3. UGC MOOCs
4. UGC E-Content URL
5. E-PG Pathshala
6. VIDWAN
7. SWAYAM PRABHA