

Report on: Awareness Drive for Organic farming

Organized by: Student Club J.S. University

Event Summary:

This was a campaign of students of J. S. University Shikohabad, along with Student Club J.S. University on 02 March 2019. Students participated in this campaign. Main motive and aim of this campaign was to study Awareness Drive for Organic farming and help the people to participate in these activities. Outcome of this campaign was that students were able to know about Awareness Drive for Organic farming during this activity. The total 60 students participated in this campaign.