

A REPORT ON

TITLE: “Religious Peace Drive”

Nature of event:Awareness program

Date & Duration: 25th September 2019

Organized By: Student club, J S University, Shikohabad

Organized At: Seminar hall 1,central building,JS university,Shikohabad

Objective: Religious peace is a field that focuses on how religion can be used to promote peace and prevent conflict. Religious actors and faith-based organizations can contribute to peacebuilding in many ways, including:

Peace education: Teaching people about diverse traditions to increase understanding, respect, and cooperation

Conflict prevention: Working to prevent conflict from arising

Mediation: Helping to resolve conflicts

Humanitarian aid: Providing aid to those in need

Building networks: Connecting local leaders to work together for peace

Social reconstruction: Helping communities recover after conflict

Advocacy: Promoting human rights and empowerment

In the above context,Religious peace drive activity was held at Seminar hall 1,central building where the religious leaders and eminent scholars of different faiths from across countries came together and expressed their views on world peaceand its relevance in the present time when the world confronting with many challenges.The activity was attended by nearly 170 plus leaders,devotees and eminent scholars of different religions.

COORDINATOR

STUDENT CLUB

J.S.UNIVERSITY ,SHIKOHABAD