

Report on Students Attributes Facilitated by J.S. University (2018-2023)

Multiple attributes of students have been facilitated by the J.S. University. A selective list and details of respective supporting activities have been listed below.

1. Professional Excellence

- The curricula of the J.S. University has been designed with a strong emphasis on professional excellence with a balance of theory, practical, and hands-on training.

2. Discipline

- Discipline is a primary requirement at the J.S. University and all students are expected to abide to applicable Code of Conduct. Induction programs for all students ensure the awareness of Code of Conduct, Rules, and Regulations of the University and committees have been established for monitoring the compliance to discipline requirements.

3. Harmony and Moral Values

- Students at J.S. University participate in different workshops and activities to inculcate natural behaviour of politeness and support the harmony and peace in and around the campus. Curricula has been designed to incorporate formal teaching about Ethics and Moral Values. Workshops are conducted for practicing the Moral values in life.

4. Mutual Acceptance and Inclusiveness

- Unity in Diversity is a key of learning in the J.S. University. While the students and staff in J.S. University come from diverse backgrounds of regions, religions, languages, and social status, the practices followed in the university ensures mutual acceptance and inclusiveness.

5. Environment Friendliness

- Green Campus Initiatives with active participation of students and regular awareness programs for the students about environment sustenance inculcate the environment friendly habits in the students.

6. Social Commitment and Responsibilities

- The students are made aware of their Social Commitment about supporting the nation building initiatives of state and central government. The university take initiatives to make them aware of their Social Commitment and Responsibilities and contribute effectively. NSS and NCC wings in the university are active to spread into the students with the feel of belongingness towards nation.

कुलासचिव
जे० एस० विश्वविद्यालय
शिकोहाबाद (फिरोजाबाद)

7. Constitutional Commitment

- The NSS and different student clubs (ELC) regularly contribute for awareness of constitutional obligations, duties, and responsibilities of the students.

8. Adaptibility

- The students, through blend of sports, academics, and extra curricula activities are made adaptable to different odds and evens of the life conditions.

9. Soft Skills and Personality Development

- Different Soft Skill Workshops for improving the overall personality of the students are organized on regular basis. This includes Public Speaking, Body language, Posture, Dining Ethics, and many more.

10. Life Skills and Hygiene

- Sessions for development of Life skills and hygiene including cleanliness, vaccinations, Yoga, Meditation, Common Physical Exercises, Stress Management, Time Management, etc. are organized by the University.

11. Managerial Skills

- Event Management, Activity Planning, Team Management, Resource Planning and many other attributes are developed by making the students participate in different activities and events of the university.

12. Career Planning

- Career Counselling sessions are provided to the students to help them choosing appropriate career options from direct placement, higher education, competitive tests, entrepreneurship, professional business, or others.

13. Value Addition

- Other than the curricula linked professional skills, Multidisciplinary Value Addition Programs are offered to the students for development of interdisciplinary skills.

14. Ideation and Incubation

- The university conducts different brainstorming sessions, idea collection drives, and many other handholding activities for creation of ideas for start-ups and entrepreneurship. The university provides different facilities and support (financial and non-financial) to the students to incubate their start-up ideas.

कुलसचिव
जे० एस० विश्वविद्यालय
शिकोहाबाद (फिरोजाबाद)